

SWEET DELIVERIES

Whether it's your child in college, your friend, or your grandchild across the country, there is no better way to celebrate that special day of the year than to send a cake from someone who cares. Now, you will always have a simple and wonderful way to remember them on that important day of the year or any day of the year. These two great bakeries will deliver decadent cake fully decorated in perfect condition across the country any time of the year.

1. Bake Me A Wish!

Their gourmet cakes are baked with the freshest ingredients by their award winning New York City bakery. Each cake is adorned with a decorative chocolate plaque imported from Belgium and includes a greeting card. They have fifteen flavors and can easily feed six or eight people. Our favorite is the Double Fudge Crunch Cake made of moist & fudgy 7-inch brownie cake topped with chocolate chip-cinnamon-oat streusel and ribbons of dark chocolate glaze. It also available in a 4-inch cake just the right size for one.

THE FREEDOM CAKE

approaching, Bake Me A Wish! will deliver a gourmet birthday cake to a soldier serving overseas, in the name of your recipient, with each purchase of The Freedom Cake. The Freedom Cake features two-layers of yellow cake filled with silky vanilla whipped cream mousse, covered with luscious buttercream, garnished with white chocolate, more mousse and red, white & blue sprinkles. Each cake can be shipped domestically in the US and will feature a special "Best Wishes" card informing the recipient that a cake has been sent to a soldier in their name, alongside an imprint of the American Flag.
